

Dear colleagues,

Welcome to Week 5 of our online Forum.

We have another exceptional week coming up! The topic of this week is “Face-to-Face/Screen-to-Screen: Interactive Media” and we will concentrate on new mediums, such as computer games, mobile phones and such.

There have been some changes to facilitators – unfortunately, Todd Murray of Hope’s Voice will not be joining us this week, but we are thrilled to have Amil Husain of the UN Millennium Campaign with us. The Campaign “informs, inspires and encourages people’s involvement and action for the realization of the Millennium Development Goals (<http://www.millenniumcampaign.org/site/pp.asp?c=grKVL2NLE&b=185529>). An initiative of the United Nations, the Campaign supports citizens’ efforts to hold their government to account for the Millennium promise.”

What’s a bit less known to the public is what amazing, innovative programmes the Campaign employs – and who best to tell us about them then Amil, who helps run some of the most groundbreaking ones. I won’t spoil the surprise – I’ll let Amil share their work himself...

As always, I look forward to a great week and to hearing from all of you.

Best,

Srdjan
